There are also flight-status text alerts. More kiosks for smoother check-in. And on select flights we have 24 channels of live TV, over 1600 mp3s, seatback games and HBO®.

Discover Something New

Welcome to the 17th Anniversary of Gay Days Orlando; our theme this year is 'Discover Something New'. As always that magical visit to the Magic Kingdom on Saturday, June 2nd will be a highlight of your vacation. The Magic Kingdom is where Gay Days started in 1991 and is a must-do event of any Gay Days vacation.

This year in the Places To Play section on pages 13-14, we also highlight other area attractions and locations around the state. Discover Something New this trip or on a future vacation. Most of these exciting destinations are within an easy drive in a Saturn, the Official Vehicle of Gay Days. If you prefer, just catch a quick flight on Delta, the Official Airline of Gay Days. However you get there, we're sure you'll enjoy these side trips.

Gay Days continues to grow with 135,000+ attendees traveling here from around the world. We're proud to have been voted one of the top three GLBT vacation events in the world by readers of OUT TRAVELER magazine. Be sure before your vacation ends you stop by the Gay Days Expo, enjoy one of the many pool events, or one of the 50 other events happening around town. Check out the full calendar in the middle of the magazine.

We're also celebrating the 20th anniversary of the Gay, Lesbian & Bisexual Community Center of Central Florida, Inc., which was the first GLBT Center in Florida. The Center is where Gay Days took root. If you get a chance you should stop by and see all they offer. If you're a local, become a member and help The Center grow.

Many of you will wear one of the official Gay Days red-shirts (available at Gay Days Central - see pg. 5), but no matter what your style, be sure to make it red. Remember WEAR RED & BE SEEN!

GayDayS.com/Gay Days, Inc. is proud to be part of the Gay Days growth. GayDayS.com is a proud member of the IGLTA (International Gay & Lesbian Travel Association), VisitFlorida.com, CLIA, and other travel/vacation groups. Think of us throughout the year for all of your vacation/cruise needs. Next time you're planning a visit to Orlando visit our sister site GayOrlando.com.

Wear RED...Additional Clothing is Also Recommended

RED is so HOT! The traditional reason to wear RED on Saturday, June 2nd is to blend in. You know how it feels to think you're the only one in the world. ASSIMILATE!

If you are already in Central Florida and didn't pack anything RED, stop by Gay Days Central at the Host Hotel-Royal Plaza Hotel (see page 5) to find that special outfit or accessory.

Follow the Magic Kingdom schedule and you will work it. Many of you have been before so remember to pace yourself, the weather will probably be hot and wet. This will be the longest day at Gay Days 2007.

Buy your tickets in advance and arrive early at the Magic Kingdom since you'll be sharing the park with tens of thousands of other red-attired people. Some may be unsuspecting vacationers and although they may realize they aren't in Kansas anymore, they can still be part of our family. Employees at the Magic Kingdom look forward to this festive day each year. Make sure to be nice and thank them for any assistance.

Make your visit special... have a Gay Old time! Take lots of digital pictures to remember the magic. We hope you will share some of them with us and be part of the 2007 Gay Days photo gallery.

Local & State Scene

No matter if this is your first time or your 17th vacationing at Gay Days, we know you can Discover Something New if you just look around. From Gatorland, the 1st attraction in central Florida, to the Kennedy Space Center, which is just 45 minutes east of Orlando, there are many exciting destinations just a short drive away (in a Saturn).

Gatorland, the location of this year's Gay Days photo shoot, had a devastating fire in November 2006 that destroyed the park's award-winning Gift Shop and Executive Offices. Within a few weeks they reopened with a new entrance while the signature Gator Entrance was repaired.

On December 2, 2006 the staff of Gay Days and a cast of 18 models, photographers, and volunteers started at 5 AM in the morning and didn't finish until 4 PM that afternoon. With the assistance of Tim Williams, the Gator Man, the hard work of all created the beautiful photo spread you see in this magazine.

Gatorland is a 110-acre theme park and wildlife preserve, combining "Old Florida" charm with exciting, new exhibits and entertainment. The park opened as a roadside attraction in 1949. Today, it provides affordable-priced family fun with thousands of alligators, crocodiles, an aviary, a breeding marsh with observation tower, a petting zoo, a nature walk, educational wildlife programs, a gift shop, Florida's best train-ride, restaurants, all new Gator Gully Splash Park opened in April 2007 and much more. One-of-A-Kind reptilian shows include: the Gator Wrestlin' Show, Gator Jumparoo and the Up-close Encounters Show.

Gatorland is located at 14501 S. Orange Blossom Trail, Orlando, FL 32837 and is open daily from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. To find out more about "Orlando's only Theme Park with Bite and Attitude," call 1-800-393-JAWS or visit them online at: www.gatorland.com.

So get OUT and explore because you never know what you will Discover! Have a fun and safe time during your Gay Days vacation.

Being a proud member of VisitFlorida.com we also recommend other attractions in our great state. If you have the time this year, visit one or more fabulous Florida sites throughout the state. If not, make sure to visit one of these spots next Gay Days or maybe during a winter vacation escape from the COLD and DISCOVER SOMETHING NEW.

Florida Keys & Key West

is the gay Mecca on planet earth. Sun, water, bars, clubs, coffee houses, historical architecture, theatre, street entertainment and the continental U.S.'s only living coral reef await you and your friends. Only Key West has it all, every day of the year. There's so much to see and do. Ever since the "gay revolution" in the 60's, Key West has provided a home for gays & lesbians, transgenders, drag queens, and an unlimited variety of other characters. Gay authors, artists, designers, lawyers, architects, doctors, hairdressers, bartenders, waiters, actors, and just plain folks flock to this tiny island

No Matter With Whom You Drink, Please Do So Responsibly

paradise. Today, Key West boasts one of the most diverse populations anywhere in the world, a special place where closets have no doors. This home of Fantasy Fest was voted the #1 GLBT destination in the US. Info: www.floridakeys.com/gay has been a haven for gay and lesbian travelers for decades. Miami is truly a unique place. A world-class city, Miami combines a cosmopolitan flair with tropical Caribbean atmosphere. With strong roots in Latin American culture, Miami offers the gay and lesbian traveler a unique experience for culture, dining, recreation, nightlife and shopping. Miami is a city that revels in its diversity, offering a mix of cultures that can be found no other place. South Beach is an entirely different kind of gay destination from the more traditional gay resorts. One of the world's hottest gay destinations, South Beach is high-energy and high fashion. Gay South Beach attracts a fast-lane crowd, including a lot of gay and lesbian New Yorkers who commute down on winter weekends, muscle boys, circuit queens, lipstick lesbians, and everyone in the fashion business. Come see why Gay Miami/South Beach is truly the Gay Riviera. Miami is home to the Miami International Gay & Lesbian Film Festival, and the White & Winter Party. While you're there you can stay at the Courtyard Marriott Miami, one of our Expo vendors this year.

Fort Lauderdale

is Where The Boys Are! And Girls Too! Fort Lauderdale has been a haven for gay and lesbian travelers for decades. Over 7 million people a year come to America's Riviera, Fort Lauderdale. In addition to being gay friendly, Fort Lauderdale has more than 100 gay-owned establishments including hotels/guesthouses, bars, clubs and restaurants, plus the second largest Metropolitan Community Church congregation in the United States and three gay and lesbian publications. Ft. Lauderdale has three popular gay beach areas on Fort Lauderdale's 23 miles of wide, sandy beaches. Florida's Beach is where you want to be! Close to everything, yet miles away. A beautiful peninsula located on Florida's West coast, the area is bordered by the Gulf of Mexico to the west and by Tampa Bay to the east. Home to Caladesi Beach, America's #2 beach in 2006. Also home to Fort De Soto Park, America's #1 beach in 2005, over 35 miles of white-sand beaches on some eight major barrier islands. Within minutes of many popular Florida attractions: just 30 minutes to Busch Gardens in Tampa and 90 minutes to Walt Disney World Resort in Orlando. Come personally experience the warm Gulf sunsets, the unique cultural heritage, the vast sporting and recreational activities, fresh seafood and great shopping. There are world-renowned museums, family fun and endless sunshine. Everything you want from your vacation, all right here! Home to St. Pete Pride, which is one of the largest pride events in Florida.

Tampa area

You want Florida, you want it all, and you only want to unpack once. No problem. You want Tampa Bay. Here, a single day's itinerary might include breakfast at a waterside cafe, Busch Gardens, The Florida Aquarium, a streetcar ride to Channelside for shopping, and a Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Devil Rays, or Lightning game. Then on to historic Ybor City where the Cuban sandwiches are hot and crisp, the cigars are hand-rolled, and the colorful streets are lined with fun. What next? White, sugar sand beaches, sport fishing, jet skiing, and parasailing. Join the party in January as rowdy swashbucklers invade Tampa for the Annual Gasparilla Pirate Festival. Home of the Tampa International Gay & Lesbian Film Festival, Changing Tides Cottages for Women, Tampa Bay Business Guild, Equality Florida, Winter Pride and much more.

The endless array of activities and the exhilarating mixture of attractions, restaurants, shopping, and accommodations are a sure fit for any traveler. Relax at a four-star resort or a quaint sea-side inn, explore master works of art, catch a round of golf, stroll through world-class shopping, canoe through unspoiled mangrove-lined waterways, dine on a bay front cruise, or just dig your feet in the sand and bask in the glow of an evening Gulf sunset, whatever your pleasure. Film Festival

Each year we here at GayDayS.com strive to bring more types of entertainment to Gay Days. This year we are proud to present for our attendees the 1st annual esurance.com Gay Days Film Festival.

There are four films over two days for your enjoyment. Our opening film ROCK BOTTOM follows the journeys of seven gay men struggling with meth addiction and recovery against a backdrop of an emerging second wave of HIV infection. Our second film COFFEE DATE follows Todd, who is straight, as he ends up on a blind date with a gay man, Kelly—the result of a practical joke played by his brother, Barry. 3 NEEDLES takes us from South Africa, to China, and North America as it shows the face of AIDS and the impact on all of us. We close the Festival with SAINT OF 9/11 which presents the turbulent, restless, spiritual and remarkable journey of Father Mychal Judge, Chaplain, FDNY who was killed as he rushed to help on September 11, 2001.

We hope you enjoy one or all of these films during your vacation at Gay Days. It will be a good excuse to get out of the heat.

the center of our community

The Center, (Gay, Lesbian & Bisexual Community Center of Central Florida, Inc.) is one of the premier organizations in Central Florida and the oldest GLBT center in the state. The Center's history is older than Gay Days. The Center opened in 1986 and continues to offer support and social programs for all ages, genders, orientations and socio-economic backgrounds. The Center was instrumental in the start of Gay Days seventeen years ago and continues to be involved today.

The Center provides a coming out group for men, support for GLBT families, HIV/AIDS testing and prevention, a health fair, and a counseling program. In addition, over 20 autonomous GLBT groups meet at The Center during the month.

The Center also hosts art receptions, bingo, dances, plays, and many other social events during the year. Stop in while you're here for Gay Days or any time of the year!

It's a Wrap!

Our day at Gatorland produced more great photos than we had room for. Here are a few more of our favorites. Everything you see is as it happened. No wildlife has been "photoshopped" in - the models rode gators, wore tarantulas, pythons, scorpions, and did so in (usually) great spirits. Our hosts were amazed by the fearlessness, but hey, when you are gay in a sometimes hostile world, what's the big deal about a few gators?

Special thanks to our MODELS below and:

SAVOY and BLUE for providing some of the models

Saturn for the SKY roadster

Photographer Frankie Huff

Gatorland for the venue

Tim Williams from Gatorland for spending the whole day with us

Tabitha Dye for makeup

Tommy Manley for behind the scenes video

Scott Laurent Collection for the van

Lee James Florist for the flowers

GMequality. Before you look at us as an automotive company, you should look at us as corporate citizens. Because, like us, you want superior quality and competitive prices. But you also want to buy products from companies whose policies you feel good about.

And that's why General Motors Corporation works — and succeeds — at making a difference in the global economy, and valuing human potential and diversity. Just one of the ways we're achieving this is through our active and effective gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender employee group, GM PLUS (People Like Us).

Our domestic-partner benefits level the playing field between same-sex and married couples. General Motors scored a perfect 100 in the 2006 HRC Corporate Equality Index Survey.

We sponsor local LGBT community centers, national LGBT conferences and special events. And we've committed $1 million to HIV/AIDS awareness. Today, GM quality is turning heads all over the automotive industry. We hope we've just turned yours.
